Dorothea Barnhouse Every teacher wants and expects his or her students to be reading increasingly complex texts, yet sometimes the gap between our expectations and our students' abilities seems wide and deep.

Readers Front and Center | Stenhouse Publishers

What an incredibly important book Readers Front and Center is! Dorothy puts kids into the drivers' seats and shows teachers the power of listening. Listening, truly listening, is one of the hardest things we teachers have to do as we instruct our students. Don Graves showed us how to listen to writers.
