Despite the many answers of it being “Yes, you can love someone without reason because then that’s true love since you don’t need a reason to love someone.” — pure and utter crap, I tell you. Just some romanticized load of bull. “And why, exactly, is it true love if you don’t need a reason?”

Can you love someone without a reason? - Quora

But love as a force is limitless, so there is never less of us when we give it. Does the ocean seem less vast when it loses a drop? Why would we lose the magnitude of who we are by being kind and compassionate for no particular reason? In fact, it’s through the practice of sharing and giving love that love flows back to us.
