Page 1: Overview of the Pre-Referral Process The private school where Ms. Delatorre previously worked had no formal process in place for dealing with challenging students. Teachers either communicated informally (e.g., in the teacher lounge) or formally (e.g., during a scheduled meeting) with one another or with other professionals.

Page 3: Six Stages in the Pre-Referral Process. As Mr. Young explains the stages of the pre-referral process to Ms. Delatorre, he is careful to reemphasize that pre-referral is flexible enough to address concerns about student performance in any academic area, as well as those related to student behavior. He also illustrates with examples from pre-referral meetings held at Macy Middle School how the process works at its various stages.
