#9. The Reef Aquarium: Vol. 2. One of the 'original' authoritative texts on the hobby, published in 1997. The Reef Aquarium Volume 2 is part 2 of a trilogy of good resources and was written by Charles Delbeek and Julian Sprung. From my perspective, the key thing in this description is that it is a text, it looks like a textbook, it feels like one, smells and reads like one, too.

William Saville-Kent was most famous for his book The Great Barrier Reef of Australia (1893), however we thought it interesting to include his connecting to the aquarium industry. He often cites his foundation in aquaria as being important, and how aquariums were important not only for public awareness but also scientific research.
