The West Point Cadets' Sword is issued to cadet officers of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York for wear when the uniform is designated as "under arms," to include formal functions, drill, parades, inspections and graduation. The swords are issued to cadets in their First Class (4th) year, and are returned to the Academy upon separation.

West Point Cadets' Sword - Wikipedia

Capt. E.L. Buchwalter's sword was a non-regulation US officer's sword known as the Peterson 75, due to its inclusion as figure 75 in Harold Peterson's seminal work The American Sword 1775-1945. This class of swords is typically an iron-mounted officer's sword and is invariably a sword imported from the Prussian cutlery center at Solingen with a maker's mark "W. Walscheid" (Wilhelm Walscheid) of Solingen, Prussia, who made a limited number of swords exclusively for export to the ...
