In 1907, the popular farm magazine Hearth & Home inaugurated its States-of-the-Union series of quilt patterns for which readers from around the country were asked to contribute. The 48 best patterns, including original designs and the senders' "favorites," then appeared in the magazine, and are reprinted here along with the patterns from the then "outlying possessions" of Alaska and Hawaii.

The United States Patchwork Pattern Book

Love the Patchwork Quilt Designs coloring book from Creative Haven! The pretty designs make it fun to choose your favorite colors to create beautiful quilts without having to even thread a needle. Each quilt pattern is well drawn which makes them easy to color without too much deliberating. Liked this book so much that I will be ordering others.
